American Dane Magazine

In order

Published in Askov, MN

This publication was known as Danish Brotherhood Magazine from January 1941 (v.26, #1) through February 1972 (v.57, #2). At its inception on February 1, 1916 (v.1, #1) the magazine was titled Det Danske Brodersamfunds Blad. That name was used through December 1940 (v.25, #12).

The issues of American Dane from March 1972 through December 1972 are shelved alphabetically with Danish Brotherhood Magazine, since the only issues in the Archive for that year are in bound volumes.

All issues of Danish Brotherhood Magazine and Det Danske Brodersamfunds Blad are shelved according to their alphabetic sequence.

In order

Published in Blair NE

The manner in which the volumes are bound has made it necessary to place the second set version for 1894 within the first set and adjacent to the first set version for 1894. Similarly the first set and second set versions of issues 1 and 2 of 1898 are also adjacent and within the first set. All other issues for the second set are located on the shelves after the last issue of the first set.

Here is the way that the first set is organized:

The years 1892, 1893, and 1894 are bound together.
 The years 1894, 1895, 1896, and 1897 are bound together.
 Bound at the very end of 1894-1897 are issues 1 and 2 for 1898.
 The separately bound volume for 1898 and 1899 also contains issues 1 and 2 for 1898.
 From 1898 through 1914 every two years are bound together.
 From 1915 through 1931 every year is bound separately.
 1932 and 1933 are bound together.

Here is the way that the second set is organized:

Issues for 1892 and 1893 are in an acid-free envelope.
 The year 1894 is bound within set 1.
 The years 1895 and 1896 are bound together.
 Issues 1 and 2 for 1898 are bound within set 1.
 Issues for 1904 and 1905 are in an acid-free folder.
 Issues for 1906 and 1910 are in an acid-free envelope.

The year 1914 is bound separately.

1915 is bound with the first 26 issues of 1916.

There is also a bound volume containing only the year 1916 and only issues 1-52 of that year (issue #53 is missing). Consequently, the second set actually contains two copies of the first 26 issues of 1916.

Set 1:

1892 Bound #21-29,31-47

Dansk Luthersk KirkebladIn order

Published originally in Racine WI, but later in Blair NE

This publication was originally subtitled Udgivnet of De danske Præster I Konferensen for den norsk-danske, evangelisk-lutherske kirke i Amerika.

At some later date and through v.19, #30, in 1896 this publication was subtitled Udgivnet af den dansk evangelisk kirkesamfund i Amerika [emphasis added] and the main title was shortened to Kirkebladet.

From v.1, #1, in 1896 this publication is subtitled Udgivnet af den forenede dansk evangelisk kirke i Amerika [emphasis added] and the original main title was restored.

Set 1 contains two copies of the issues for 1892 because of the way different years have been bound together. The issues for 1891 and 1892 have been bound together, as have the issues for 1892, 1893, and 1894. There is only one copy of the issues for 1894. There is no second set for that year. Therefore, the single units of 1891 and 1892 and 1892 through 1894 have been included in the first set.

Set 1:

The following volumes are shelved together. Since more than one year is often bound together, these issues effectively constitute both set 1 and set 2 for the years prior to 1896. Because of the way these volumes are bound together, they also consist of issues through 1897.

Bound together:

1877 v.1, #1-5
 1878 v.1, #6-17
 1879 v.2, #1-24

In a single acid-free envelope:

 1887 #2,4-10,13-24 [2 copies of #20]
 1890 #1-9,12-24

In a single acid-free envelope:

1892 #9 (2 copies) [The 2nd of these 2 copies is technically an “extra copy”]
 1896 #19, #23 [These are both “extra copies”]
 1907 #49 [This is the “second copy”]

Bound together:

1891 #12-24
 1892 #1-2

Bound together (badly deteriorated):

1891 #12-24
 1892 #1-24
 1893 #1-36

Set 2:

Bound as single years:

1896-1920 (one volume for each year without exception)

Microfilm:

There are 12 reels of microfilm that together contain issues from January 1, 1879 (v.2, #1) through December 29, 1920 (v.25, #52)

The Archive has copies of two different publications bearing this name. Most of the copies are a version that was published in København. There are also a few copies of a Norwegian publication of that name that was published at various times in both Cedar Rapids IA and Decorah IA. The Cedar Rapids and Decorah versions each look quite different from the other, and the København version has a different layout from the Iowa publications. In the Archive Book Room the editions published in Cedar Rapids are shelved first, followed by the Decorah editions, and then by those published in København. Duplicate copies are shelved side-by-side. Extra copies have been placed near the door for transfer to the Nielsen Room. All copies are unbound.

Sets 1 and 2 are bound and on the shelves.

Extra copies are in an acid-free box near the book room entrance.

- 1893 The Archive has only one set, apparently complete. It is bound with complete sets for 1894 and 1895.
- 1894 The Archive has four sets. The set that is bound with 1893 and 1895 is complete, as are the sets (one bound and one in a plastic envelope) that contain only the issues for 1894. The fourth set is partial, though it does contain two copies of issue #21. The fourth set is stored in an acid-free envelope.
- 1895 The Archive has four sets. The set that is bound with 1893 and 1894 is complete, as is the set that is bound with 1896. In an acid-free envelope are two partial sets. One of the two is nearly complete, as it lacks only the first and last issues for the year.
